Betty Lu liked working with children

by GLORIA DAVIS

When she was a little girl, her father taught her the value of reading, a lesson she learned so well that almost half a century later she found herself retiring from a life that has been bound on all sides by books of many varieties.

She is Betty Lu Williams, who at 62, retired on May 1 after a 38-year association with the Antioch Township Library, acting as head librarian for 24 years.

On the occasion of her retirement, the library board feted her at a dinner held on that Saturday at the Colony House in Trevor and presented her with an enscripted gold watch, honoring her for her years of service to the local reading community.

Betty Lu, one of village's elder stateswomen, comes from a long line of Antioch dignitaries, starting with her grandfather, Daniel Williams, the founder of the Williams Bros. Dept. Store in 1871. It was one of the first, and once one of the oldest, businesses in town. He also served as the village's postmaster, having the post office located right in the store.

Her uncle Edgar Williams was a village trustee in the early 1900s and her father, Ray Williams, was once a local doctor who also served as the school physician.

Betty Lu's father did a good job in teaching the love of the written word to his family seeing that Betty Lu's only brother was also a librarian in Iowa.

She started out as an assistant to Antioch's librarian in the early 1940s when it was just a couple of small rooms located above Pickus' (Continued on Page 3)

Brazile calls family, taken off missing list

The hunt for 28 year-old truck driver, Gary Brazile, Antioch, seems to be over. A representative of the Lake County Sheriff's Dept. said that Brazile had contacted his family and he had been taken off of the missing list as of Friday, May 7.

While refusing to comment further, the source from the sheriff's department added that other agencies were still investigating the matter.

Gary Mull, manager of Quality Carriers Co., Brazile's employer, would make no comment on the case.

Members of Brazile's family, when contacted, also refused to comment on the matter.

Brazile had been reported missing on April 26, after he left on April 8, driving a Quality Carriers truck, headed to pick up a load of fresh eggs in Post, Tex.

His wife's cousin, Karen Irman, was reportedly the last person to have seen him when he stopped and visited her in Irving, Tex. on April 13.

Brazile called his wife Sandy from Dallas, Tex. on April 16, saying that he would arrive home in three days.

Sheriff's departments from Texas,

Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri and Wisconsin have been hunting for the missing truck driver since April 26.

Schedule arraignment for June 30

According to representatives of the Lake County Circuit Court, Marilyn Muth, 34, Tinley Park, has had her case continued. Her arraignment on charges of operating a toy scam in Antioch last November has been reset and will be heard on June 30 in front of Judge Bernard Drew.

Muth allegedly took approximately $2,000 from 15 Antioch residents on the pretext of ordering Christmas toys for them from national mail-order houses. She reportedly took the money and failed to deliver the toys.

She faces similar charges in the Cook County courts and is presently out of jail, having posted a $2,500 cash bond.

Coach salutes players, wife

"The greatest honor I've received is the one given me by my peers," says Roger Andrews, newly retired Antioch High School basketball coach.

He refers to the honor of being named Coach of the Year by the Illinois High School Basketball Coaches Assn. in 1981, after he ramrodded the little-known Sequoits all the way down to the Elite Eight basketball tourney in Champaign.

The retirement of Andrews brings an end to a local sports era.

For 20 years and through 600 games, Andrews has been at the Sequoits' cage helm and, although he can surprisingly give accurate accounts of many of these games, he says it is not the scores that he remembers most, but the kids that made them.

ROGER ANDREWS

Like any other coach, Andrews was always striving to end each season with a winning team, a feat he often accomplished, but it is all "the good, nice kids, that made it for me," that are his favorite memories.

He says that the fact that many of his players went on to play good junior college and college ball, four playing in the Big 10, is one of his greatest rewards.

He also mentioned that he is very pleased that a lot of his boys are doing well in business and industry.

Twenty of Andrews' 25 coaching years were spent at Antioch during which his teams won eight Northwest Suburban Conference (NWSC) champions, six Illinois High School Assn. (IHS) regional crowns, one IHS sectional title and once won membership in the state's Elite Eight.

Eight of Andrews' teams won 20 games or more but three teams stand out in his mind as having different characteristics.

The 1966-67 team brought Antioch its first regional title and still holds the school record for the most wins, 26-5. Don Zeamy, Andrews' successor, was a member of that team.

Tyronne Walls, whom Andrews claims is possibly the best cager in Antioch history, led the Sequoits that year.

Democratic strength on rise in Antioch

Antioch is quickly becoming a hotbed for Democrats in Lake County as two local Democrats are expected to be slated by the Lake County Central Committee to run for state office.

Instead of running for congress against incumbent Congressman Philip Crane (R-Mt. Prospect), Dan DeFosse of Antioch has announced he will oppose State Sen. Adeline Geo-Karis (R-Zion) for a seat in the state senate.

The Democrats are also expected to slate another Antioch resident, Bob Gesiakowski, to run against Robert Churchill of Lake Villa for a seat in the house. Churchill defeated Ron Greisheimer of Wadsworth and Jim Olson of Antioch in the March Republican primary.

DeFosse said the major reason for his switch to seek election in the senate "was probably what I could best do to help Lake County. The federal government works, but it's slow. The state issues are more important and the state has to turn around fast. I decided that I could be more effective working at the state level," said DeFosse.

DeFosse had never actually become the party's official candidate for congress. After failing to file his petitions in time to be on the primary ballot, a drive for a write-in victory in the primary also fell short. DeFosse was therefore waiting for a meeting of 13th district Democratic officials to slate him to run for the office in November.

With his announcement, Maureen Quantz of McHenry appears to be the front-runner.

Gesiakowski, a marketing manager with a swimming pool company, according to DeFosse, still faces some hurdles. State law, as it is now written, does not allow the central committee to appoint candidates for the house. His appointment, therefore, is awaiting the signing of legislation by the governor that will allow such appointments.

The Democratic Party is also opening an office in Antioch which will serve as west Lake County headquarters and through which the activities of candidates will be coordinated. The office's phone number is (312) 395-4860.

PM&L to close season with 'Cat On Tin Roof'

Tennessee Williams' abrupt and brassy "Cat On A Hot Tin Roof" will be the next play to be seen at the PM&L Theater, 877 Main St., in Antioch. This stark and moving tale of greed and medacity on a dying southern plantation will make its opening performance Saturday, June 5. Subsequent presentations are set for Friday and Saturday nights, June 11, 12, 18 and 19. Also, there will be a matinee performance Sunday afternoon, June 13. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. for the evening performances and 2:30 p.m. for the Sunday matinee.

Perhaps because of its frontal and revealing attack on basic human emotions, "Cat On A Hot Tin Roof" has won widespread acclaim wherever it has been performed and, in its stage and screen versions, has challenged the talents of such stellar performers as Burl Ives and Elizabeth Taylor. The PM&L production is directed by Barbara D. Miller, well-known to area playgoers as the director of the dinner theater shows at Andre's in Richmond. Last year she directed "The Night of the Iguana," also by Tennessee Williams, for PM&L.

The cast of PM&L's "Cat" features a blend of veterans of, and newcomers to, the Antioch stage. Gerry and Mickey Mandel of Fox Lake play Big Daddy and Big Mama; Colleen Jordan, Crystal Lake, is Maggie the cat; Larry Grant, Elgin, is Brick, her ex-athlete husband and Brother Man Gooper and Sister Woman Mae are played by Harry Bartlett of Fox River Grove and Priscilla Gwin Stollenwerk of Waukegan. These principal players are joined in supporting roles by Mike Giebelhaus, Lisa de benedetto, Angel Cox, John Lindgren, Mike Galdine, Katrina Meyer, Tom Hausman and George Blanksten, all of Antioch.

"Cat On A Hot Tin Roof" is clearly a major event of the current theater season and a fitting final entry in PM&L's Season 21, now drawing to a close.

To be assured of an opportunity to see this intriguing drama, call (312) 395-3055 for reservations and check in at the PM&L box office no later than 8:15 p.m. on the night, or 2:15 p.m. on the afternoon, of the performance.

ACHS to stage 'All That Jazz'

The Antioch Community High School (ACHS) Jazz Ensemble's annual variety show All That Jazz will be presented one weekend only, May 13, 14, 15, at 7:30 p.m. and May 16 at 2 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

The show is set in the town which gave birth to jazz, New Orleans. As the lights dim we are transported to Bourbon St. and hear a Dixieland jazz band in the distance.

The jazz ensemble and modern dance group will open the show with the title tune "All That Jazz." They will also perform two Count Basie style numbers called "It's Oh So Nice" and "Up In Errols Room."

"Birdland," a popular tune recorded by Weather Report will open the second half of the show. The jazz ensemble will close the show with Maynard Ferguson's "Chameleon."

There will be three dance numbers in the show this year. Sherry Haisman and Ellen O'Hara will dance to a Dixieland favorite "South Rampart St. Parade".

Ester Gerritsen, Cheryl Kearney, Patty Durkin, and Lorene Noethling will dance to "That Old Dixie Feeling."

The modern dance group will dance to a tune called "Engine No. 9", choreographed by Janet Haisman, a former student from A.C.H.S.

The ACHS Swing Choir will be represented with "Don't Cry Out Loud", and "My Heart Belongs To Me." Ineke Murakami and Scott Trezise will sing the title tune from "Endless Love".

Tickets can be obtained from band students or at the door in a limited number. All tickets are payable at the door, $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for students.

Show time is 7:30 p.m. in the A.C.H.S. auditorium.

Antioch High receives NCA accreditation

Principal Art Blecke of Antioch High School announced that the school's accreditation has been extended through the 1981-82 school year following the review and approval of its annual report at the North Central Assn.'s (NCA) Annual Meeting. Accreditation is for one year at a time and must be renewed annually.

"Once every seven years each NCA school must undergo a comprehensive self-study followed by an NCA evaluation team review," Blecke explained. "This school was last evaluated in 1975. In the interim years, a school is accredited on the basis of its report on conditions existing in the school and on such supplementary information as the Commission on Schools requests. Our report for 1981-82 assures us of ongoing NCA membership and accreditation. This continued accreditation means that the conditions for effective education exist in the school."

The NCA is the largest of the country's regional accrediting agencies. It is a voluntary league of over 5,000 schools and 900 colleges and universities in 19 states, plus the Dept. of Defense Dependent Schools throughout the world. Six hundred and nineteen schools are accredited in Illinois. The association works with individual schools to improve the quality of education through a continuous process of evaluation and accreditation.

Dr. John S. Kemp, NCA state director at the University of Illinois, congratulated Antioch High School on its continued accreditation for 1981-82. He added, "The school has been a member of the North Central Assn. since 1965, and in all those years it has been fully accredited. This should be a matter of satisfaction to the students and the parents of the school, since accreditation gives assurance that the school meets those minimal yet rigorous preconditions for effective education established by the Association. Through this voluntary membership in the NCA, the school and the people in the district have committed themselves to the pursuit of quality in education."

Quality education, an ideal in the past, is an imperative today. NCA accreditation and evaluation offer both a framework and an effective tool to help our schools clarify their goals, recognize their strengths and limitations and implement processes and programs to help meet the needs of today's students.

Accreditation by the NCA ensures that the school is meeting the minimal conditions for effectiveness. By setting standards for basic operations of the school and by requiring a comprehensive self-study once every seven years, the NCA stimulates the school towards continuous improvement. This is accountability in action, for a school evaluation involves students, faculty and parents. The external team is composed of teachers, administrators, university personnel and Illinois State Board of Education representatives. The year the school spends on an evaluation enables every teacher to participate in the development of a comprehensive plan for school improvement.

NCA accreditation helps build public confidence by providing evidence to the public that the school is meeting expectations and fulfilling not only local standards but also those more widely accepted throughout the state and the nation.

Shadow gives burglary away

by GLORIA DAVIS

The efforts of two local burglars were thwarted when they were caught in the act by Sgt. Charles Watkins of the Antioch Police Dept. at 2:48 a.m.

Steve Hovlid, 22, and Richard Niemann, 23, were arrested for attempting to burglarize the L&M Body Shop on Main St., on Wednesday, May 5.

According to Antioch Police Chief Chuck Miller, Watkins, having just finished a call that took him to the rear of the stores on the east side of Maine St., noticed a flash of movement in the window of the L&M Body Shop.

Taking note of a possible burglary in progress, he called for back-up squads. As the other squads arrived on the scene, two figures left the building on the run. One came out the front door and disappeared when he headed north down Main St.

The other jumped from the roof and was apprehended almost immediately.

The questioning of this man, Hovlid, led the police to Niemann's home but he was not there.

Niemann, hearing of the capture of his cohort, turned himself into the police at 7 a.m., that same morning.

The two had allegedly piled assorted tools by the door of the auto body shop but were scared away before they could remove them from the premises.

Both were taken to Lake County court where they were released on bond, pending a hearing.

Promote Richard Peck at Abbott Laboratories

Richard K. Peck has been promoted to director, manufacturing services, in the chemical and agricultural products division at Abbott Laboratories. Previously, he was operations manager, manufacturing staff services.

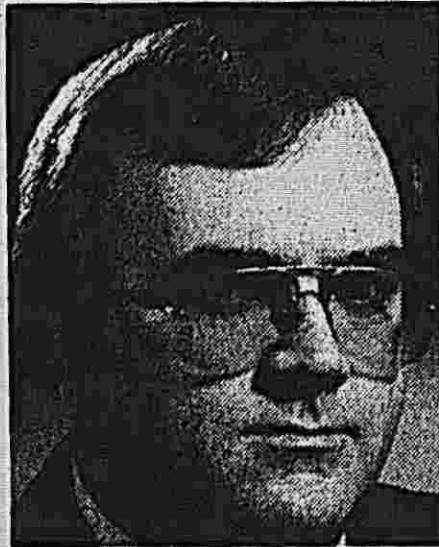

Before he joined Abbott in 1977, Peck worked for Pall Trinity Micro Corp., Cortland, N.Y., in materials management.

Peck earned his associate's degree in business administration from Onondaga College, Syracuse, N.Y., in 1973, and his bachelor's degree in business administration from Carthage College, Kenosha, in 1978.

Born in Syracuse, N.Y., Peck and his wife Mary have one child. They reside in Antioch.

Abbott Laboratories is a worldwide manufacturer of health care products employing some 31,000 people.

RICHARD PECK

And of course the third team is the 1980-81 squad that put Antioch's banner up in Champaign during the Elite Eight tournament.

The retired coach gives a lot of credit to his wife, Jeannine, for the backing she has given him during his coaching years.

"I don't think anyone knows what a coach's wife gives up," he said, "she's a sweetheart. After crediting her with much of his success, he added that spending more time together, now that their kids are grown, was a strong reason for his resigning.

Betty Lu Williams

She remembers the moves to the Masonic Building, and in 1950, to the house that stood on the same site as that of the present library.

She was one of the guiding lights that helped bring the present impressive library to the area in 1970.

The progressive growth of the library and working with the kids are the years' stand outs for Betty Lu.

Why is this obviously active gal retiring?

"I'm too tired to keep up with all the new things involved with being a librarian, so I decided to leave that up to someone younger than I," she said.

What is this peppy little lady going to do with all that free time on her hands?

"I hope to spend more time working for the United Methodist Church of Antioch, and with the Lake Region Historical Society on the new museum project," she added.

She is also looking forward to being more involved with the PM&L theater group and "just doing what I want to do when I want to do it."

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT

Dr. R. A. Sona, OPTOMETRIST

USING ANOTHER'S GLASSES

People who use glasses for reading can borrow someone else's reading glasses with no harmful effects to the eyes. But the "borrowed" glasses will not work as well. And if they're worn for a long period of time they might cause headaches.

Everyone's vision problems are different. Your degree of nearsightedness or farsightedness or other vision problem will never be exactly the same as someone else's. That's why glasses have to be prescribed for your eyes to give them exact correction needed.

When you have an eye examination, the doctor gives you a prescription for glasses. That prescription represents an exact measurement of your vision problems. The lenses will be ground in a specific way, according to the needs of your eyes. And that means both eyes, because no two eyes are exactly the same either.

In a pinch, a pair of borrowed glasses may help, but not for long. Only glasses prescribed for YOUR needs give you the comfort and correct vision you need to see well.

Firemen honor 'Ski'

Michael P. Gutowski, lifelong resident of Antioch, died on May 3, at Resurrection Hospital, Chicago.

He was on the job for P.M.W. Construction Co., Desplaines, when he complained of feeling ill.

He went to rest in his car and when he was checked on later his condition warranted calling that area's emergency squads who transported him to the hospital where he died as a result of a heart attack.

Gutowski was an active fireman in Antioch for five years and was honored by area emergency personnel both at his wake and by a parade of emergency vehicles at his funeral.

His wife, Linda, and his mother and father, Bernie and Shirley Gutowski, were presented with a framed poem written in "Ski's" memory, by Capt. Ray Gallaher of the Antioch Fire Dept.

Our friend Mike Gutowski has passed away

He has gone to a better place.

A towering man with a flashing smile

And a handsome, bearded face.

We know Mike's gone, it hurts us inside

But all we can do is ask why.

And as the tears come

We won't hold them back

For even a man has to cry.

A fireman he was, the best of the breed,

Not one to yell and shout.

Mike followed a saying we firemen have,

"First in and always last out."

Shirley and Bernie have lost their Mike

Their first born, their warrior, their life

And Linda who loved him, her only wish, to always be his wife.

With Kennedy, Duffy, Carney, Harv and Snarl, Moore and me

I'll never forget his words when we met,

"My name is Mike, just call me Ski."

Gutowski was a graduate of St. Peter's Grade School, Antioch High School, and he attended the College of Lake County and Illinois State University.

Ask Dr. Sven WHAT IS TMJ?

Q: I've been getting pains around my ears and throat, but the doctor can't find anything wrong. He suggested it might be a dental problem. How can that be?

A: Many problems can cause chronic facial pain. Lately, attention has been focused on problems surrounding the temporomandibular joint (TMJ) which controls opening of the mouth.

Problems in the TMJ area can affect anyone, but they are more common in women. There may be pain in front of the ear; over the jaw or temple area. Chewing may be painful, and opening the mouth wide may be difficult or impossible. There may be clicking in the ear.

Usually, the problem is not in the joint itself, but in the muscles and ligaments surrounding it. Grinding of the teeth during sleep can be a triggering factor. A bad bite or emotional stress may also bring on the problem.

Treatment of pain in this area is becoming more effective. Medication can be used in the short run, but most treatment is aimed at eliminating the causes of pain. Oral appliances may be necessary, as well as dental treatment to eliminate a bad bite.

Lions to build pavilion

by GLORIA DAVIS

The Antioch Lions Club is funding and building a 60 by 104 foot pavilion, to be constructed by the pool and tennis courts in Williams Park in Antioch.

According to Lions President Jay Dziki, the pavilion will have a metal roof, wood trusses and posts in the ground, with open sides, besides being blacktopped beneath.

In accepting Wickes bid of $18,878, the Lions membership authorized the pavilion building committee to spend up to $25,000 on the project, at a meeting held on Thursday, May 6.

Lou Santi is chairman of the fund raising committee that will have all the Lions hustling brooms from the middle of May, right to the annual Lions Bar-B-Que in August.

Dziki said that the pavilion will be put up after the plans are checked with Village Building Inspector Dick Stroner. The target date for completion is set for the middle of June.

The Lions will give the pavilion to the village, and village officials will have control over it.

Besides the Lions using the pavilion to house their annual farmers' auction on the day of the barbeque, it will be available for use by all of the community's organizations.

Spring cleaning calls for mailbox spruce up

Now that the snowplows have been put away, the U.S. Postal Service is urging postal patrons — and especially those on rural routes, city curbsides and highways — to turn their attention to repairing and improving their mailboxes during Mailbox Improvement Week, May 17 through 21.

"This winter was especially rough on mailboxes," said Postmaster Mary Ann DeRemer. "Now the effects of weather, vandalism, abuse and neglect are evident in learning support posts, rust and corrosion, broken hinges on doors and missing box numbers and names."

Noting that rural carriers alone serve more than 15 million boxes daily, the Antioch Postmaster said a damaged or improperly placed box will make it more difficult for rural letter carriers to leave those special letters and packages.

"Of course some boxes may only need painting," the postmaster said, "but others may need to be replaced."

The postmaster said the Postal Service has restrictions on the type of mailbox customers may choose. Rural customers must erect mailboxes which have been approved for use on rural routes. Should customers prefer a custom-made mailbox, it must meet certain standards for size and strength and be approved by the postmaster before being placed in use.
